Arlington High School to host its largest Skilled Trades Fair on April 9

ARLINGTON- More than 40 businesses from around the region will attend the Arlington High School Skilled Trades Fair on April 9. This is the third year of the event. It has expanded from a dozen companies the first year to more than 40 this year.

- What: Arlington High School Skilled Trades Fair
- Who: Arlington High School students will interact, observe and learn from more than 40 businesses and trades about the different careers that are available in our community.
- Where: Arlington High School, 18821 Crown Ridge Blvd., Arlington, WA
- When: Tuesday, April 9, 9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.
- Details: The special part of this event is that students will be able to learn about and apply for open jobs during the event. More than 80 percent of the businesses in attendance are looking to hire students for some sort of employment. These jobs include summer work, internships, apprenticeships, and full-time work, which could land them careers after high school.
- Visuals: Heavy machinery will be on display. Trades represented include medical, culinary, manufacturing, construction, automotive, agriculture and more (see attached flyer for partial list of businesses that will be attending the event).
