4th year of Great Kindness Challenge to have a big impact at Eagle Creek Elementary and in the Arlington community

ARLINGTON- Students and staff at Eagle Creek Elementary are joining more than 27,000 schools around the world for the Great Kindness Challenge. The Great Kindness Challenge is a national movement designed to increase tolerance, unity and respect.

- What: Great Kindness Challenge
- Who: Eagle Creek Elementary staff, students and families, Arlington community volunteers
- Where: Eagle Creek Elementary, 1216 East 5th Street, Arlington, WA 98223
- When: Tuesday through Friday, Jan. 28-31, all day
- Details: This is the fourth year Eagle Creek Elementary has held the Great Kindness Challenge. It is a week devoted for students to perform as many acts of kindness as possible on the school campus and then reach out into the community with kind acts.
- Visuals: The students will be creating kindness messages to be delivered to the local hospital, nursing homes, as well as placing them on car windshields around the community. Students will also be coloring pictures for first responders and others. Community members will be visiting the school to help the students with these projects.
