

Media Advisory

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 1, 2022

Gary Sabol
360-618-6217

Arlington High School to host Skilled Trades Fair on April 14

ARLINGTON- Nearly 40 businesses from around the region will attend the Arlington High School Skilled Trades Fair on Thursday, April 14. This is the fourth year of the event which wasn't held the past two years due to COVID-19. It has expanded from a dozen companies the first year to nearly 40 this year.

- What: Arlington High School Skilled Trades Fair
- Who: Arlington High School students will interact, observe and learn from nearly 40 businesses and trades about the different careers that are available in our community.
- Where: Arlington High School, 18821 Crown Ridge Blvd., Arlington, WA
- When: Thursday, April 14, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.
- Details: Students will be able to learn about various career paths and experience hands-on activities. Many of the businesses in attendance are looking to hire students for some sort of employment. These jobs include summer work, internships, apprenticeships, and full-time work, which could land them careers after high school.
- Visuals: Heavy machinery will be on display. Trades represented include manufacturing, construction, automotive, maritime, electrical, military and more.

###

The 2019 Arlington High School Skilled Trades Fair