Experience AHS Drama's suspenseful and funny fall production of "Clue"

ARLINGTON- It's time to experience Arlington High School (AHS) Drama's fall production of "Clue."

"The play is based off of the movie from 1985, which is based off the Parker Brothers board game," said Robbie Hanson, AHS Director of Theatrical Arts. "The show is a murder mystery comedy about six people with checkered pasts all coming together one dark and stormy night for a dinner party. When their host reveals his dark intentions, he ends up dead, and everyone is a suspect. They must reveal who among them is the murderer, where did they do it, and with what, all before they end up next."

"This is a very fast-paced production and is a really fun murder mystery," said Owen Kikuchi, an AHS 10th grader who plays Mr. Body.

"This play does a masterful job of blending the murder mystery and comedy genres," said AHS Senior Matti Birdsong, who plays Mrs. White in the production.

The show is rated PG-13 for some violence and suggestive materials (some adult themes and simulated images of smoking and alcohol drinking).

The first production will be held Nov. 4-5 at 7 p.m. Showings will be held the following week Nov. 11-12 at 7 p.m. All showings will be held at the Byrnes Performing Arts Center at AHS, 18821 Crown Ridge Blvd. in Arlington. Tickets are $8 for students and seniors and $10 for all other adults.
