Washington State Gatorade Player of the Year to be recognized

ARLINGTON- Arlington High School Senior, Jenna Villa, has been named the Washington State Gatorade Player of the Year and will be recognized during an awards ceremony at Arlington High School.

- What: Awards ceremony to recognize Jenna Villa as the Washington State Gatorade Player of the Year
- Who: Arlington High School Senior, Jenna Villa, is the Washington State Gatorade Player of the Year
- Where: Arlington High School
18821 Crown Ridge Blvd., Arlington, WA
- When: Friday, May 5, 9:25 a.m. to 10:10 a.m.
- Details: Villa is the first Gatorade Washington Girls Basketball Player of the Year to be chosen from Arlington High School. The award, which recognizes not only outstanding athletic excellence, but also high standards of academic achievement and exemplary character demonstrated on and off the court, distinguishes Villa as Washington's best high school girls basketball player.

At the time of her selection, the 6-foot-2 senior guard and forward had led the Eagles to a 22-2 record and the Class 3A state semifinals. Villa averaged 22.3 points, 8.1 rebounds, 2.9 steals and 2.2 assists through 24 games. A two-time Wesco 3A/2A Player of the Year, she is also a First Team All-State selection and led the Eagles to three consecutive district championships for the first time in school history.
