Get tickets now for AHS Drama's fall production "Moon Over Buffalo"

ARLINGTON- Tickets are now available for Arlington High School (AHS) Drama's fall production of "Moon Over Buffalo," AHS' first comedy in many years.

"Putting together a comedy is certainly a lot of fun," said AHS senior and stage manager, Mikelle Kelly. "Our last fall production was 'The Crucible,' which was a very serious production. This production is very quick paced and there's a lot of excitement about it."

The play focuses on George and Charlotte Hay, a slightly over-the-hill acting duo who constantly seem to be on the verge of greatness, despair or possibly divorce. There are huge misunderstandings, mistaken identities, broken engagements and many, many near misses. The set features five entrances, three sets, fake noses, swords and a weather forecaster mistaken for General George Patton. There will also be two separate casts involved in the play.

The first production will be held Nov. 3-5 at 7 p.m. Showings will be held the following week Nov. 11-12 at 7 p.m. and also a matinee Saturday, Nov. 12 at 2 p.m. All showings will be held at the Byrnes Performing Arts Center at AHS, 18821 Crown Ridge Blvd. in Arlington. The show is rated PG 13 and is not intended for younger audiences due to some mature subject matter.
